

A diagram illustrating dataset partitioning. It consists of three horizontal rectangular blocks. The top block is light blue and labeled 'Dataset'. Below it are two blocks: a larger light green block on the left labeled 'Train' and a smaller light red block on the right labeled 'Test'. The 'Train' and 'Test' blocks are positioned side-by-side, representing a split of the dataset.

Dataset

Train

Test